Confirmation Programme 2019-20: Letters have been sent to prospective years 9 and 10 candidates. If you have not received one and would like to join us, please pick up an invitation letter and registration form from the porch at the back of Church. Note to everyone inc those who received forms through the post – please return the registration form to Father Kevin .

The confirmation programme run at St Mary's involves 3 retreat weekends which are both spiritually and life enriching for both candidates and leaders, incorporating the application of Catholic Social Teaching, the 10 commandments and sacraments into our daily lives.

It is a commitment for both candidates and leaders. The leaders have willingly committed many years to this programme but it is time for some of us to step aside and allow other enthusiastic and perhaps more energetic people to take the programme forward.

So we would like to invite those who feel they could join the programme as a leader to contact Father Kevin and to come along to a weekend session .

Note: Fr Kevin will be away from the Parish from Tuesday, 27th August until Friday, 13th September. Fr Maximillian, a Priest from the Ukraine, will celebrate the MASS for the two weekends.

Sunday Altar Servers: When altar servers are not available to serve at MASS on Sundays, anyone who is willing and able is welcome to help the Priest. Please speak to Father Kevin before MASS.

Thank You to the St Vincent de Paul Group for organising last Sunday's afternoon outing. It was a very happy and enjoyable event.

Bishop Richard asks for our prayers for the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes, where the Diocesan Group are this week - remembering especially the sick and disabled.

First Communions 2020: Children not attending St Mary's School - Parents please collect a form from the alcove in the Church porch and when filled, please return to the Priest's Cottage letter box. Thank you.
